

2025 Wisconsin Stormwater Week- MAMSWaP Social Media Tools and Schedule 2

Promote - Sept 19th-Sept 28th

WI Stormwater Week starts this weekend with two local events! Join the Yahara River Clean Up on Saturday or register for the Native Garden Learning Hub Gathering: Rain Garden and Downspout Garden event on Sunday. #WIStormwaterWeek #WIRippleEffects

Learn more at: www.ripple-effects.com/wi-stormwater-week

Schedule: Sept. 19th

Hear from the experts! Tune in to one or all of the free lunchtime webinars being offered during WI Stormwater Week to learn about stormwater pollution and solutions. #WIStormwaterWeek #WIRippleEffects

Register at: wistormwater.com

Schedule: Sept. 20th-22nd

Additional individual webinar graphics available on <https://ripple-effects.com/MAMSWAP-Outreach-Resources> - 2025 WI Stormwater Week Tools

The best way to prevent stormwater pollution is by keeping rain where it lands. Collect roof runoff, conserve water, and save money! Order a rain barrel today. #WIStormwaterWeek #WIRippleEffects

Order at: ripple-effects.com/rainbarrels

Schedule: Sept. 23rd – 28th

FOR ADOPT A STORM DRAIN MUNICIPAL PARTNERS- Fitchburg, Middleton, Stoughton, Sun Prairie, Cross Plains, DeForest, McFarland and Cottage Grove.

Do storm drains near you look like this? Sign up to Adopt a Storm Drain in (ENTER NAME OF MUNICIPALITY) and commit to keeping it clean and clear all year long. #WISstormwaterWeek #WIRippleEffects #AdoptADrain

Learn more at: ripple-effects.com/Adopt-A-Storm-Drain

Schedule: Sept. 23rd- 28th

Leaves can be a great natural fertilizer for lawns, but when left in the street they can fertilize our waters too. Rain runs through street leaves creating a phosphorus-rich tea that washes down storm drain to our waters. Help protect area waters by removing street leaves before the rain this fall.

#WISstormwaterWeek #WIRippleEffects #LeaffreeStreets

Learn more at: ripple-effects.com/Leaf-free-streets

Schedule: Sept. 23rd- 28th